Position Description:

The Youth Career Skills Coach provides career readiness and job preparation services for participants (youth ages 16-24) of the NAYA Family Center Sunrise EAST (Education and Skills Training) program in order to reach their career, training, and/or educational goals. The Youth Career Skills Program provides services that are culturally-specific and connects low-income Native American youth to the basic skills, credentials, and academic/life skills needed to enter and be successful in post-secondary education and/or career pathway employment. Duties include supporting participants to enhance their soft-skills and job search strategies, developing an individualized personal development plan, providing individual and small-group career readiness training, and providing assistance with seeking work experiences and internship opportunities along with assisting youth to obtain the education and training needed to meet their goals. This position is primarily a direct service position (75%), with the balance of the time (25%) spent performing general administrative tasks, program planning, and service coordination.

Essential Functions:

- Manage case load of Sunrise EAST program participants to ensure a successful path to self-sufficiency, and achieve project outcome goals in accordance with agency policies and procedures in a way that best meets clients' needs, including tasks such as:
 - Outreach to prospective program participants (recruitment and enrolling)
 - Performing intakes and assessments
 - Developing career and/or post-secondary education plans
 - Facilitating job search and placement

- Coordinating work readiness and skill-building activities
 - Support program retention efforts by providing coaching and mentoring services to participants
- Track and record performance data in NAYA internal database Efforts to Outcomes (ETO) and any other databases required by funders
- Provide a comprehensive assessment of each participant's educational, housing, financial, and career goals, as well as community and personal achievements
- Provide career skills development coaching to at-risk youth facing barriers to program enrollment
- Develop culturally responsive goal planning tools and documentation resources that aid youth and the program in meeting goals and outcomes.
- Provide information, referral, and advocacy for services and resources when a need or goal is identified to support a participant's success
- Disburse client assistance and incentive funds by tracking program progress and completed program activity in compliance with funding sources and program priorities
- Provide program narrative documenting performance, challenges, and program improvement recommendations
- Apply understanding of contractual guidelines and procedures, including enrollment and participant performance goals

Additional Duties:

- Other duties as assigned by College and Career Readiness Manager
- Collaborate with the College and Career team to plan and deliver individual, group, and community-based post-secondary education and career readiness preparation and navigation activities
- Collaborate with community partnerships to develop agreements that address culturally-specific career and post-secondary education outcomes for youth
- Provide coaching for youth eligible for available savings programs that support youth's career and post-secondary education goals (such as the Post-Secondary Education and Youth IDAs)
- Additional NAYA Family Center Duties:
 - Understand and adhere to confidentiality
 - Coordinate wraparound services effectively with other NAYA Family Center programs and staff
 - Input data, and maintain NAYA and/or contractually required information database systems to track client information
 - Includes entering client data, assisting and/or preparing periodic reports
 - Database examples include but are not limited to: Efforts to Outcome (ETO), Counselor Max, I-Trac, etc.
 - Participate in trainings and/or meetings to ensure program outcomes are achieved
 - Represent NAYA with the utmost professionalism at community events and other public relations opportunities
 - Work as an active member of departmental team
 - Participate actively in cross-departmental team projects
 - Contribute to fostering a safe and secure environment for community members and staff
