

NAYA Scholarship Program

Purpose:

The Native American Youth and Family Center (NAYA) Scholarship Fund awards scholarships to current or college-bound student based on demonstrated academic and non-academic achievement, financial need, and demonstrated commitment to family and/or community.

Criteria:

The students eligible for assistance must be current or former NAYA program participants and intend to pursue their education at an accredited, non-profit, two-year or four-year, public or private college or university. A holistic review will be conducted with consideration given to academic and non-academic achievement, financial need, and the student's demonstrated commitment to family and/or community. Students must complete the application in full, partial submissions will result in non-consideration.

Guidelines:

- Must be a current or former NAYA program participant
- Must be enrolled in an accredited, non-profit, two-year or four-year college or university, during the 2021-2022 Academic Year
- Must be continuously enrolled at least part-time throughout the 2021-2022 academic year
- Must be a degree seeking student

Amount: Multiple awards; Total of $10,000 in awards available

Deadline: August 8, 2021

Renewal: This is a non-renewable scholarship. Students may apply annually and may be re-awarded if, and only if, they complete all requirements outlined per the scholarship awardee agreement.

Application Requirements:

- Completed scholarship form
- Completed scholarship essays
- Award Letter from attending institution
- Two References