Job Location: Portland, OR
Created/Revised: February 2022

Position Description:
The Domestic Violence Housing Advocate assists domestic & sexual violence (DSV) survivors’ efforts to obtain housing resources and support from public and private organizations (including landlords, employers, and government agencies). The Domestic Violence Housing Advocate’s responsibilities center on building relationships with the program’s diverse clientele by fostering trust and supporting their strengths and capabilities in a fully engaging manner (regardless of participants’ backgrounds, personal histories, and/or household compositions).

Duties include providing a range of support services directly to households assigned to caseload, as well as performing auxiliary tasks that indirectly facilitate overall quality and integrity of services provided. Duties take place where they are most effective; consequently, the Domestic Violence Housing Advocate may spend a significant amount of time out in the field (such as homeless camps, shelters, or at participant’s current residence). This position is primarily a direct service position (80%), with the balance of the time (20%) spent performing general administrative tasks and service coordination.

Essential Functions:
- Provide direct outreach and housing placement services to domestic violence survivors who are experiencing homelessness, including but not limited to:
  o Advocate on behalf of participants seeking to improve their housing situation.
  o Working collaboratively to address participants full housing needs.
Essential Functions continued:

- Performing outreach at times/locations best suited to participants/potential participants (such as going to apartments, cars, parks, homeless encampments, domestic violence and homeless shelters, and other locations where people camp).
- Assist with removing barriers for DSV survivors with moving their belongings into and out of camps/apartments.
- Make and accept referrals to/from the Resource Coordination Team.
- Provide information and referrals as appropriate.
- Disburse participant assistance funds and supplies in compliance with funding sources and program priorities to eliminate housing barriers.

- Build and maintain collaborative relationships, logistical support, and communication with property managers and landlords, police, social service agencies, businesses, and neighborhood organizations.
- Provide and maintain continued support to promote housing stabilization with recently housed DSV survivors for an appropriate minimum time length (usually three months or longer).

- Provide intervention, advocacy, support, and education for domestic/sexual violence survivors, including:
  - Access to emergency/crisis intervention supplies.
  - Return of hotline calls as needed.
  - Facilitate domestic/sexual violence educational programs and workshops for the community in DV shelter and non-traditional DV settings.
  - Assess domestic/sexual violence survivor’s needs/strengths, develop personalized safety plans, case plans, and determine appropriate plan to remove housing barriers.
  - Provide participants with ongoing case management services including administration and direct service for housing services, information and referrals, safety planning, and participant advocacy through face-to-face meetings and telephone contact.
  - Establish and nurture relationships that encourage survivors at all stages of the housing placement process, by emphasizing a strength-based, trauma informed approach.
  - Maintain excellent case management procedures in compliance with funding sources and strength-based interventions.

- Provide community outreach/training to the community partners on culturally competent Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault prevention.
  - Coordination and facilitation of access to critically needed resources and services
  - Identify and develop critically needed resources for participants by contacting and collaborating with key staff members in the Portland Metropolitan Area’s housing and social service organizations that provide for pregnant or parenting teens, adults, singles, and families.

- Maintain documentation in a timely, thorough, and accurate manner in accordance with agency guidelines and as required by funding sources.
  - Gather basic demographic information (such as age, educational level, family and/or intimate relationship information, and current living situation)
  - Document and record all participant information and interaction
  - Complete, track, and enter Safety and Stabilization Assessments
  - Assist in database management including data entry and grant reporting.
  - Prepare required activity reports and participate in program evaluation activities (such as programmatic and fiscal reports)

- Attend and participate in agency, community, and staff meetings and trainings through NAYA Family Center and partner agencies as directed by the Healing Circle Manager and/or Family Services Director.
- Represent NAYA Family Center and the Domestic Violence Program at community events and other interest generating opportunities.
