Position Description:

This position is a mobile, remote position delivering the KEEP model to various locations within the state during regular in-service delivery. This model is currently being delivered virtually due to State requirements for in person service delivery.

KEEP is an evidence-based support and skill enhancement program for foster and kinship parents of children ages 4-12 (KEEP Standard) and teens (KEEP SAFE). The KEEP Group Leader co-leads 16-week groups. Each weekly session is 90 minutes and is a blend of peer-support and manualized curriculum. All KEEP sessions are recorded for model fidelity and coaching support. Prior to running the groups, KEEP Group Leaders will participate in a 5-day training on the KEEP model with trainers from Oregon Social Learning Center Developments, Inc. (ODI). The KEEP Group Leader portion of this position will include conducting recruitment home visits, scheduling and facilitating KEEP group sessions, attending weekly coaching with ODI via videoconference, and completing project data entry promptly and accurately.

The Foster Parent Recruiter portion of this position is in additional piece to the Keep group leader, which is responsible for identifying, contacting, and registering eligible foster parents for KEEP support and training groups. Additionally, the Recruiter provides presentations to, and forges community partnerships with, organizations that interface with the Child Welfare system. The Foster Parent Recruiter meets regularly with foster parent certifiers, DHS caseworkers, community partners, and others to provide an overview of the program and solicit referrals. The Foster Parent Recruiter maintains a collaborative working relationship with the Oregon Department of Human Services, Oregon Social Learning Center, and Options Counseling and Family Services.

Position Description continues:

The applicant should have strong social skills, time management skills, problem-solving skills, and excellent communication skills. The applicant should demonstrate the ability to work with populations with diverse cultural and socio-economic backgrounds. Applicant should be comfortable with computer use and able to enter attendance and other data with a high level of attention to detail. The applicant must be able to engage in the coaching process—specifically, to be receptive to feedback, willing to role-play, and willing to try new skills.
