Position Description:

The Youth Housing Advocate works with young people (ages 15-24 years old) to facilitate their personal and social development, to create healthy and on-going support systems and foster relationships that enable them to gain a voice, influence, and place in their community as they transition to independence. This position works with youth identified as being homeless by providing prevention activities, which are designed to build and strengthen their identity and role within the community. Duties include providing a range of support services directly to youth assigned to caseload, as well as performing auxiliary tasks that indirectly facilitate overall quality and integrity of services provided. This position is primarily a direct service position (80%), with the balance of the time (20%) spent performing general administrative tasks and service coordination.

Essential Functions:

- Provide intervention, support, information and referral and advocacy for youth assigned to case load, as well as other youth in the program as needed
  - Actively advocate on behalf of clients seeking safety
  - Working collaboratively with youth to address their full range of needs
  - Locating, coordinating, or providing transportation services
- Manage crisis and provide service intervention as needed
  - Locating, distributing, or providing emergency crisis intervention supplies
- Create and nurture protective factors (such as caring relationships, high expectations, and relevant and meaningful participation) in each youth's environment
  - Establishing relationships that encourage positive social and emotional development
  - Integrating and reconnecting youth with natural supports and community resources

Essential Functions, Continued:

- Facilitate youth engagement and self-determination
  - Engaging youth to build and strengthen their identity and role in the Native community
  - Facilitating interdepartmental activities to engage youth
  - Providing engagement services to unaccompanied youths while in host home/shelter placement, to assist them in reunification, if appropriate, or acquire an alternate safe, stable placement
- Provide referrals to other services as needed
  - Connecting clients with family or other counseling services as needed to prevent or mitigate youth homelessness
  - Presenting program information to referral agencies
- Maintain documentation in a timely, thorough and accurate manner in accordance with agency guidelines and as required by funding sources
  - Gathering basic demographic information (such as age, educational level, family and/or intimate relationship information, and current living situation)
  - Documenting and recording all client information and interaction
  - Assisting in database management, including entering client data
  - Preparing required activity reports and participating in program evaluation activities (such as programmatic and fiscal reports)

Additional Duties:

- Other duties as assigned by Direct Services Manager or Director of Youth and Education Services
- Additional Youth Housing Advocate Duties:
  - Assist in developing resources and options for homeless youth
    - Work with NAYA staff and community partners to provide accessible services to homeless youth
    - Assist in developing resources for youth in need
- Additional NAYA Family Center Duties:
  - Understand and adhere to confidentiality
  - Coordinate wraparound services effectively with other NAYA Family Center programs and staff
  - Input data, and maintain NAYA and/or contractually required information database systems to track client information
    - Includes entering client data, assisting and/or preparing periodic reports
    - Database examples include but are not limited to: Efforts to Outcome (ETO), eSIS, Counselor Max, SAGE Fund Accounting, Raisers Edge, etc.
  - Participate in trainings and/or meetings to ensure program outcomes are achieved
  - Represent NAYA with the utmost professionalism at community events and other public relations opportunities
  - Work as an active member of departmental team
  - Participate actively in cross-departmental team projects
  - Contribute to fostering a safe and secure environment for community members and staff

Qualifications:

Education & Training:

- Bachelor's Degree in Social Work, Counseling, Education, or related field required
  - An equivalent combination of education and experience may be an acceptable substitute
- Master's Degree in Social Work preferred
- Knowledge of service systems and clinical issues related to out-of-home youth
