Reports To: College & Career Readiness Manager

Job Location: Portland, OR

Created/Revised: January 2021, Revised February 2024

Position Description:

As a member of NAYA’s College and Career Services, this position is responsible for identifying, enrolling, and coaching youth and young adults, who have not yet obtained a high school diploma or GED, to identify and execute their plan to obtain the educational milestone of completing a high school diploma or equivalency through a GED. The goal of the program is to coach youth to obtain living wage careers through identifying their career goals and building and acting on an education or career plan that will help them meet those goals. The position is responsible for program outreach and delivery, coordinating closely with partner organizations delivering GED coursework and administering tests as well as those providing support services such as career exploration or tutoring services, providing coordination and outreach services among NAYA’s staff, and supporting youth through goal plan creation, resolving barriers, one-on-one coaching, and tutoring. This position provides direct services and coaching to youth participants and coordinates with other staff providing wrap-around services.

This position spends 70% of time on direct services, 10% performing outreach and relationship building activities and 10% of time spent on administrative tasks; the remaining 10% of time is spent on other NAYA duties such as attending staff meeting, trainings, and staffing NAYA events.

Essential Functions:

- Lead outreach and enrollment of participants into NAYA’s Re-engagement program, based on grant identified eligibility criteria
- Serve as the primary coach for youth enrolled in NAYA’s Re-engagement program, which includes developing meaningful relationships with prospective and enrolled youth, developing education and/or career plans with youth, coaching youth to execute the goals and next steps within their plan, and resolving barriers to youth success

- Conduct tutoring in subject areas relevant to participants, with an expected emphasis on math and science
- Coordinate services to ensure youth have the resources and knowledge to complete their career goals after completion of the high school diploma or GED
- Foster both internal (cross-departmental) and external collaborations to advance the organizational mission of NAYA as it relates to educational attainment rates for Portland’s Urban Native youth
- Collaborate with external partners as necessary to form, maintain, and strengthen relationships that lead to improved services to program clients, including:
  - Establishing, maintaining, and/or cultivating effective working relationships with organizations focused on GED services and intensive supports for high school completion,
  - Fostering effective communication, family engagement, and collaboration with clients, colleagues, NAYA staff, and community members
- Become NAYA’s resident GED expert and provide recommendations to College and Career Readiness Manager after researching or otherwise conducting an agency feasibility study to determine if NAYA should host our own GED program or continue partnering and referring participants to partners providing GED services
- Maintain documentation in a timely, thorough and accurate manner in accordance with agency guidelines and as required by funding sources, including:
  - Gathering basic demographic information (such as age, educational level, family and/or intimate relationship information, and current living situation)
  - Documenting and recording all client information, interactions, and performance data (including in NAYA’s internal database Efforts to Outcome (ETO))
  - Preparing required activity reports and participating in program evaluation activities (such as programmatic and fiscal grant reports)

Additional Duties:

- Additional Educational Engagement Coach Duties:
  - Coordinate and, when applicable, provide direct client assistance, transportation, and/or childcare support, within grant parameters
  - Staff College and Career Services programming including events, drop-in spaces, workshops, and more
  - Participate in and contribute to the College and Career Preparation team within NAYA’s youth College and Career services
- Other duties as assigned by College & Career Readiness Manager
- Additional NAYA Family Center Duties:
  - Understand and adhere to confidentiality
  - Coordinate wraparound services effectively with other NAYA Family Center programs and staff
  - Input data, and maintain NAYA and/or contractually required information database systems to track client information
    - Includes entering client data, assisting and/or preparing periodic reports
    - Database examples include but are not limited to: Efforts to Outcome (ETO), Counselor Max, SAGE Fund Accounting, Raisers Edge, etc.
  - Participate in trainings and/or meetings to ensure program outcomes are achieved
  - Represent NAYA with the utmost professionalism at community events and other public relations opportunities
  - Work as an active member of departmental team
  - Participate actively in cross-departmental team projects
  - Contribute to fostering a safe and secure environment for community members and staff
